If the person has stayed in a country that is subject to the special precautionary and restrictive measures, published on the website of the Centre for Disease Prevention and Control (SPKC), he/she must declare that he/she will take the special precautionary measures, including self-isolation.

If the arrival of a foreign national in Latvia is necessary for the fulfilment of obligations of Latvian merchants, then this person must confirm in writing that while staying in Latvia, he/she will ensure self-isolation outside the working hours, monitor his/her health condition and observe the special precautionary measures.

If the person has stayed in a country that is not subject to the precautionary and restrictive measures, the person does not have to comply with the special precautionary measures.

The relevant carrier is responsible for handing over the completed statement to the State Border Guard and SPKC as soon as possible.

Questionnaires of persons who have stayed in a country (published on the SPKC website), which is subject to the special precautionary and restrictive measures, must be submitted to the State Border Guard.

The remaining questionnaires must be submitted to the SPKC.

The responsible authority must store the statements for one month.

The procedure for submitting the questionnaires to the State Border Guard:

At locations where there are State Border Guard posts, the questionnaires can be returned there (airport, large ports).
